Policy Name: Use of Meeting Rooms in Blair Library

I. Overview

The purpose of the Library's meeting rooms is to provide space for library programs and events, to fulfill the Library's role as a community center where the public can attend informational, educational, cultural and civic events, and to champion the principle of intellectual freedom by providing a forum for the exchange of ideas. The Library permits the public to use its facilities and meeting rooms when such use does not interfere with Library-sponsored programs and services.

It is the policy of the Fayetteville Public Library to provide meeting room space to Fayetteville residents, governmental agencies, nonprofit groups and local businesses and associations. Permission to use a Library meeting room does not in any way constitute the Library's endorsement of the group or individual's policies or beliefs, and no claim to that effect may be used, explicitly or implicitly, in advertising. The Library neither approves nor disapproves of content, ideas or subject matter presented in meeting rooms and does not accept responsibility for ensuring accuracy or that all points of view are represented.

Use of the Library's meeting rooms and other spaces must meet the policies approved by the Library's Board of Trustees; any activities that are inconsistent with these policies will be denied or terminated. This policy shall be administered by the Executive Director, or her/his designee(s), who is (are) authorized to make any exceptions to this policy when in the best interest of the public and the Library. The Fayetteville Public Library and the Board of Trustees are not responsible for accidents, injury or loss of individual property while using the meeting rooms.
