Exhibition Proposal Application Guidelines

Blair Library strives through exhibition programming to provide exhibition space for local and regional artists whose work supports our goals.

We welcome exhibition proposals at any time. Your proposal will be considered for potential display in any of our exhibition spaces: Reading Room, Young Adult/Non-Fiction Area, Media Area, and Children's Area.

On-site Venues:

Blair Library Art Committee reviews exhibition proposals once per year. You will be contacted if your exhibition is accepted for display.

How to get your exhibition considered:

Artist proposing solo show, please provide:

- Current professional resume
- One-page artist statement
- 10-15 numbered slides or digital presentation format, which provide an overview of the exhibition's content
- Exhibition checklist, which contains artist, title, medium, and size of work
- Total amount of linear feet of work to be exhibited
- Press information and releases from previous exhibitions if available

Artists proposing group exhibition, please provide:

- Concept Statement (theme) of exhibition
- Current professional resume for each artist
- One-page artist statement for each artist
- 3-5 numbered slides or other format from each artist, which provide an overview of the exhibition's content and concept
- Exhibition checklist, which contains artist, title, medium, and size of work
- Total amount of linear feet of work to be exhibited
- Press information and releases from previous exhibitions if available

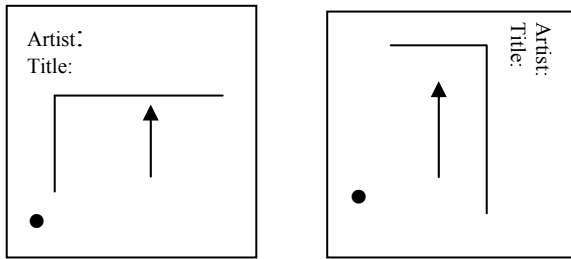

Juried & Children's Exhibitions:

- Juried and group children's exhibitions will be examined on an individual basis.

- All inquiries should contain the juried exhibition guidelines and quantity of pieces in the show.
- The Fayetteville Public Library Art Committee reserves the right to deny hanging a work in a juried exhibition based on the content of the piece.

For all proposals:

Slides should be labeled as follows:

Please include a suitable self-addressed stamped envelope for the return of materials. All pages should be 8 ½ x 11 inches and typed. Only complete applications will be considered.

Send package to:
Fayetteville Public Library Foundation
